

Hur Hassnain

Hur Hassnain is an evaluation specialist. He works for the European Commission, DG INTPA Evaluation Support Service in Brussels, Belgium. Hur is the Founder of Pakistan Evaluation Association and elected Board Member at the International Development Evaluation Association [IDEAS]. Hur is the Lead Author of the book, "Evaluation in Contexts of Fragility, Conflict and Violence" published in 2021.

Hur has extensive experience of working in a variety of thematic areas including but not limited to gender equality, climate change, renewable energy, agriculture, women's economic empowerment, education and protection. He has lived and worked in Asia, Middle East and Africa. Hur has designed, commissioned and conducted research and evaluations for projects funded by the UN agencies, European Commission, private donors and governments of the UK, Canada, Switzerland, Netherlands and Norway. He also enjoys writing poetry and has a collection of Urdu poetry published in 2006.

