

Rutaba is a researcher and social policy coordinator with expertise on youth engagement, multi-sectoral collaboration and project management - particularly strategy and fundraising.

Rutaba is pursuing her Masters in International Relations with a focus on Middle East and Peace Studies from the University of Karachi. In 2020, she attended SOAS's Academic Summer School on their Ambassador Scholarship to study Conflict and International Development. She graduated top of her class with a B.A Honors in International Relations in 2017. She also works as Country Coordinator Model OIC for ICYF (OIC's Official Youth Forum) and as Regional Chairperson for Asia at International Association for Political Science Students. She currently serves as the Account Executive at Unitas Communications - a UK based communications agency that works with IGOs, NPOs and Global Corporations.

In the past she's worked with Pakistan Institute of Legislative Development and Transparency, British Council (Karachi) and Associate Dean's Office, Institute of Business Administration.

